

Come join the Platteville Historical Society/Platteville Pioneer Museum for the 2nd Annual “May Pole” Celebration.

Around the world and for thousands of years, people have celebrated the start of May with festivals, flowers, cakes and dancing. Known as May Day and celebrated primarily across Europe and North America, May 1 traditionally marked the first day of summer.

When: Saturday, May 3rd from 2pm to 3pm

Where: In the courtyard between the library and the museum at 502 Marion Ave., Platteville

Refreshments will be served.
